

Coming in May 2003 from Severn Records

Following up his WC Handy Nominated "I Like It That Way" is Darrell Nulisch's "Times Like These," a 12-song disc blending Memphis Soul and Texas Blues, showcasing what Jazz & Blues Report describes as "one of the richest, soulful voices to grace modern blues." Complete with a beautifully arranged and conducted 6-piece horn section by Willie Henderson of Tyrone Davis and Jackie Wilson fame, "Times Like These" is a dazzling offering from Nulisch who gives a triumphant performance. Six originals penned by Darrell and long time collaborator/bassist Steve Gomes keep company with an equal number of Soul/Blues covers including Ray Charles' "Snow is Falling," where guitarist Jon Moeller turns in a career-topping performance, and Ashford & Simpson's funky "Running Out." "Times Like These" is poised to become a modern Soul/Blues classic and a must stock for your Blues bins!

- 2000 WC Handy Award nomination in the Soul/Blues Album of the Year category for "I Like It That Way" (Severn Records).
- "I Like It That Way" made Pulse! Magazine's list of Top 10 Blues Recordings for 2000.
- Former lead vocalist for Anson Funderburgh & the Rockets, Ronnie Earl & the Broadcasters and Mike Morgan & the Crawl.
- When not promoting his own dates, Darrell can be heard fronting legendary harmonica player James Cotton's band.
- Radio publicity contracted to Todd Glazer Promotions.
