"For those of you who enjoy blues that blends funk with the urban experience in a relevant way... nobody is better equipped than Lou Pride to deliver high-octane R&B like the Lord intended it to be."

- GEORGE SEEDORF
BIG CITY BLUES

UNLEASHING THAT BIG VOICE

from the Windy City, Lou Pride reaches new heights with Keep on Believing, his third album on Severn Records. Lou delivers 11 powerful new originals, topping them off with a beautifully soulful version of the Bob Marley classic "Waiting in Vain," and a remake of his own 1972 hit on the English Northern Soul scene "I'm Com'un Home in the Morn'un." Sparked by the horn arrangements of the great Willie Henderson (Tyrone Davis, Chi Lites), Lou leads us to a righteous place where Chicago blues meets Memphis soul.

"... [Lou] is carving out his place in music history proudly and bravely carrying the torch of master soul-blues crooner, in the footsteps of Ray Charles, Sam Cooke, Otis Redding, and Bobby Bland."

--STEVE CAGLE, KVMR RADIO
